Interested in Joining an English Language Learning Group ?

The Livingston Library is offering adult learners interested in improving their English language and speaking skills an opportunity to engage in weekly Conversation groups. Students will attend a weekly one hour Conversation Group with 1-2 other adults. Students will have the opportunity to practice speaking, listening, & reading English language in a caring, safe, fun environment.

Student Agreement:

As a student, I agree to the following:

- I will plan with my tutor to meet at a time and date which we both agree on.
- I will be on time for my lesson.
- I will plan to attend all 14 weeks of the tutoring sessions.
- If I need to miss a lesson, I will contact my tutor 24 hours in advance.
- I will conduct myself as part of a learning partnership and respect my tutor as well as myself.
- I will maintain appropriate boundaries with the volunteer facilitator.
- I will not request assistance in any personal or family matters.
- I will notify the library of any changes in my contact information.

I agree to the above conditions. In return, the library will provide me with a volunteer facilitator to help improve my English speaking and listening skills.
